

Richard Banks "Hit" with Galatia Students

RICHARD BANKS, at mike, surrounded by happy Galatia high school students who gave their stamp of approval to his recordings.

May Become Nation's Newest Singing Star

By Bill Melton

Eldorado may soon be referred to as the home of "the nation's newest singing star."

Richard Banks, Eldorado native, may well be the next idol of the teen-agers. And the yardstick for measuring a star in this day and age is the teen-ager.

A couple of days ago the Galatia high school students were exposed to Banks' vocalizing and to say "they liked it" would be the understatement of the year. They loved him and his singing. They "swung, swayed and squealed" with delight and gave Richard the full treatment usually reserved for those with big-time ratings.

When he appeared on the gym floor Richard was surrounded by admirers demanding autographs and one girl happily displayed a bit of his wavy, brown hair — either pulled out by the roots or clipped.

It would be safe to assume Galatia teen-agers like the same music teen-agers over the nation like—and if that is a fact Richard Banks is headed for the big time.

It all started for Banks—who is employed by the General Telephone Company of Illinois—about five months ago when John Bozeman came to Harrisburg as a manufacturer representative.

Bozeman, who was a disc jockey for six years at a Nashville radio station, wrote a musical while a student at Vanderbilt University and has composed several songs. He has worked closely with Nick Todd, brother of Pat Boone, on several occasions.

Last October, while making business calls in Eldorado, the subject of singers came up and Bill Fry introduced Bozeman to Banks, who had done a little singing, but had no plans for a career.

However, Bozeman was impressed with the quality of Banks' voice and his manner of

Stratton Asks Illinois Congress PTA to Support Bond Issue Proposal

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — The Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers opened its 56th annual convention here today and Gov. Stratton called upon the delegates to support the 248 million dollar bond issue to be voted on in November.

About 3,500 PTA delegates were expected to attend the three-day meeting.

Mrs. Isaac Loose, Illiopolis, has been selected by the Congress' nominating committee to succeed Mrs. Milton L. Wiener, Wilmette, as president of the state PTA.

Other nominations include Mrs. Robert W. Nelson, Lake Forest, first vice president; Mrs. Harold Jump, Oswego, second vice president; Dr. Franklin L. Fitch, Chicago, third vice president; and Philip W. Vance, Springfield, treasurer.

In a welcoming address prepared for delivery to the congress, Stratton asked PTA members for "door to door" support for the 248 million dollar bond issue, "the same kind of support that has passed local bond issues in the amount of nearly a billion dollars in the last 12 years in Illinois."

The bond issue, to be voted on at referendum in November, would be used for construction of new facilities at state colleges and universities and mental hospitals.

The congress also was to be asked during the meeting to back the proposed judicial reform amendment to the state Constitution that also will be on the November ballot.

President Opens Fight for Defense Reorganization

Says Plan Will Halt Bickering, In Talk to Editors

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today national "safety and solvency" demand that more attention be paid "to America's strategic requirements and less to individual service claims."

Opening an all-out drive for public support for his sweeping defense reorganization plan, the President said there must be complete unity in strategic planning, military command and in U. S. fighting forces.

Modern weapons "have scrambled up traditional service functions" and resulted in interservice "controversy and confusion," he said.

But the President said he is sure that if Congress accepts his plan based on the "facts of modern military life," the necessary unification will be achieved without taking from the Army, Navy or Air Force any of the power each "can usefully provide to support the mission of the command."

"No Prussian Staff" The President carried the fight for his reorganization plan to the public in a speech before a joint lunch of the American Society of Newspaper Editors and the International Press Institute.

He labelled as "at the least a misconception" the chief apprehensions raised by opponents of his plan.

Falling Tree Fatally Injures Galatia Resident

Adolph Barringer, 81-year-old resident of Galatia Rural Route 3, died in Lightner hospital at 2:30 p. m. yesterday of injuries received when struck by a falling tree about an hour earlier at his farm home.

Coroner James Thornton, who set the inquest for 7:30 tonight at the Courtney funeral home in Galatia, said that Mr. Barringer and two others, Henry Cooper and Randall Smith, were engaged in cutting timber at the Barringer place, two miles west and one mile north of Galatia, when the accident occurred.

Coroner Thornton said that Mr. Barringer failed to get into the clear from a falling tree and that one of its limbs caught him, inflicting several injuries. He suffered fractures of the skull and injuries to his back and face, Mr. Thornton stated.

The body was taken to Courtney funeral home.

The funeral will be held in the Ebenezer Cumberland Presbyterian church west of Rileyville at 2 p. m. Saturday. The Rev. Harve Kimmel, Benton, will officiate and burial will be in the church cemetery.

Mr. Barringer is survived by his son, L. L. Barringer, Thompsonville, and two grandchildren.

The body will lie in state at the Courtney funeral home in Galatia until time for the funeral.

Highway Bill Signed

Warns of New Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.) warned congressional Democrats today another of their bills faces possible veto unless it is watered down before it reaches the White House.

Bridges, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, referred to the measure passed by a 60-26 Senate vote Wednesday night and sent to the House. The bill would provide a billion dollars in 3 1/2 per cent loans to communities for public works projects, a House committee has been holding hearings on a similar measure which would provide two billion dollars in loans.

"My guess is that if the bill goes on through in its present (Senate form) it might well be subject to a veto," Bridges told reporters. President Eisenhower warned

Jury Orders Execution

Whitaker Convicted of Murder in Shootings Following Wife-Swap

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP) — Truck driver Thomas Whitaker, 38, accused of killing his two young children and their mother in the wake of a wife-swap which backfired, was convicted today on a charge of murder in the shooting of his 9-year-old daughter, Regina.

The jury ordered that Whitaker should be executed in the Indiana State Prison electric chair.

Whitaker and his wife Dorothy, who was Martin's ex-wife, showed no outward signs of emotion as the verdict was read. Judge Herbert Criss postponed sentencing until May 2.

Whitaker learned his fate about 20 hours after a jury of 11 men and a woman received the case Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., following last-minute appeals by the state to find him guilty on grounds that he was sane and premeditated the slayings.

Defense attorneys contended that Whitaker, who traded wives with prosperous photographer Stewart Martin a few months before the tragedy in Martin's $30,000 suburban home, was psychoneurotic and schizophrenic. They said he was insane when he entered the Martin home in a rage in the middle of the night and sprayed it and its occupants with shotgun pellets.

Oil Drilling Permit

The C. E. Brehm Drilling and Producing Co. of Mt. Vernon, Ill., has obtained a permit to drill the Thomas Weight No. 1, NE 1/4 SE 1/4, 29-7s-5e (Tate township).

The crime last June 25 shattered the quiet of a beautiful wooded setting where Martin, owner of shops in three Indiana towns, built a native stone ranch-type home occupied by the former Mrs. Dorothy Whitaker and her children by her marriage with the truck driver.

The Whitakers and Martins met around the kitchen table of the Whitaker home one night in 1956 and worked out a plan to divorce and exchange spouses. The plan backfired weeks after it was consummated. Whitaker wanted custody of his children, but Mrs. Martin got them.

Whitaker testified his 11-year-old son Jack told him stories indicating Martin, the boy's step-father, was a sex deviate.

Return Verdict After Hour and Half Deliberation

Had Been Charged With Murder After Fatal Shooting

LeRoy Chamberlain yesterday was acquitted of the murder of John Eston Ledbetter by a circuit court jury that deliberated an hour and a half.

The jury got the case a few minutes before 2 p. m. and returned its verdict in open court at 3:30.

Chamberlain had been charged with shooting to death his railroad co-worker, Ledbetter, at the Chamberlain home the night of Nov. 26, 1956. When officers arrived they found evidence of drinking and found several bullet holes in the walls. A revolver, to which Chamberlain admitted ownership, also was found.

Testimony Ruled Out

However, testimony which the state regarded as of utmost importance to its case was ruled out by a new state law which says that when an oral or written confession is made, the defense must be supplied with the names and addresses of all persons present at the time of confession, and that this must be done before arraignment or the confession cannot be used in the trial. The record showed this was not done. Arraignment was Monday morning before the trial commenced. At that time Chamberlain pleaded innocent.

State's Attorney Robert V. Wilson, in regard to the new state law, argued that statements made by Chamberlain to officers following his arrest were admissions and not confessions but presiding Judge Harold L. Zimmerman of Marion ruled they were oral confessions and could not be used as evidence before the jury because of the new state law, which was adopted July 5, 1957.

Thus the state was forced to base its case on circumstantial evidence as there were no witnesses to the incident at the Chamberlain home.

Directing the successful defense were Attorneys D. F. Rumsey and Joe M. Butler.

Following the closing arguments, Judge Zimmerman gave instructions to the jury. He told them they could return one of four verdicts, as follows: 1—Guilty, with the penalty death. 2—Guilty, with the penalty life imprisonment. 3—Guilty, with the jury determining the number of years to be served in prison, the number to be not less than 14. 4—Not guilty. The jury returned the not guilty verdict.

While the Chamberlain jury was out Judge Zimmerman empaneled a jury to hear a civil suit, Robert W. Hankins vs. Gus Turner. Hankins, from Marion, sought an automobile damage judgment from Turner, who lives west of Harrisburg, as a result of a collision July 10, 1956, near the Saline-Williamson county lines.

However, this case was continued this morning until the next term when after opening statements a call revealed that a plaintiff's witness, Robert J. Parks of Marion, had been taken to a hospital there and could not appear.

It was announced that the trial of Aaron Colson of Murray, Ky., charged with reckless homicide following an auto collision in Saline county in which three persons died, was continued by agreement of attorneys on both sides until the September term of court.

Practice Storm Warning Alert Here Saturday

A practice storm warning alert for Saturday, April 19, at 10 a. m. has been announced by Ray Altmire, Civil Defense Director for Saline county. It will be a five-minute alert, during which time the storm warning whistle will blow.

Altmire stated no one should call to report as this will be strictly a five-minute alert to test the effects and distance the whistle will cover for storm warning alerts.

See No Quick Relief in Remedies to Improve Economy

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —
It's beginning to dawn on Washington that the 3.6 billion dollars worth of recession remedies passed by Congress before its Easter recess aren't going to do much good this year. The recession may be well on its way to being over before they can take full effect.

The two principal items approved so far are the 1.8-billion-dollar emergency housing bill and the 1.8-billion-dollar supplementary highway construction program.

Big item in Alabama Senator Sparkman's new housing bill is a one-billion-dollar revolving fund for special assistance to housing costing under $13,500 per unit.
But Housing Administrator Albert M. Cole says that only about 300 million dollars of this money can be spent in the remainder of this fiscal year. He thinks a better estimate would be 200 million. "It's hard," he says, "to use money faster than that."

Of course, 300 million dollars or even 200 million is a lot of money. But this has been called a "ten-billion-dollar" recession.
So this housing aid will relieve it only 2 or 3 per cent this year.

THE ACCELERATED HIGH-WAY construction legislation would provide 200 million dollars more for the interstate system and 400 million dollars more for state roads. This would be in addition to the 2.3 billion dollars already obligated for fiscal 1959.

As soon as the new money becomes available, Bureau of Public Roads will allocate it to the states. But it takes from 18 to 24 months to survey, design, get rights of way and let contracts for new highways. So it may be early 1960 before much of this money could get into circulation.
This delayed reaction means that the expanded housing and highway programs aren't primarily recession relief.

Some say a more accurate classification would pin the "pork barrel" label on them.
Recession is merely being used as excuse for additional spending in these fields.

This same criticism can be applied to nearly all other public works programs now being considered by Congress.

It would apply particularly to the 1.5 billion rivers and harbors authorization bill. This has been passed in different forms by both Senate and House and is now in conference. It is a political bill.
It appropriates no money.

But it puts individual congressmen on record as supporting increased government spending in their states, even if President Eisenhower vetoes it, as he has done before.

ARKANSAS SENATOR Fulbright's bill to increase U. S. government loans to the states for anti-recession public works isn't a give-away program, but it would be slow-acting.

Originally proposed as a two-billion-dollar program, it was cut in half and a final Senate vote delayed just before Congress recessed. It must still clear the House.

The proposed two-billion-dollar program to build new post offices and renovate old ones is in the same kettle of fish. It would take three to five years to carry out.

Add all these big ideas together, however, and to the uninformed it may appear that the government is preparing to pour over eight billion dollars into the sagging economy.

But as the new Budget Director Maurice H. Stans says, "Large public works programs are not the right answer for the country now. . . . The normal pattern is for only 7 to 10 per cent of total cost to be spent in the first year."

IF THE GOVERNMENT wants to get new money into circulation fast, it must go after something like extending and increasing unemployment insurance benefits payments.

Whatever, compromise is worked out, this would provide quick help to the people who need it most.

It would also provide money calls the greatest recession remedy—"to buy"—not what somebody wants to sell people, but what they need.

U. S. Population
Now 173,210,000

WASHINGTON — The Cen-

population of the United States as about 173,210,000 on March 1.
The total included members of the armed forces overseas and Smallest Damage from Wood and Field Fires in Area in Several Years

By United Press

The fall and winter forest fire "season" is just about over and barring a bad drought in the next few weeks it has been the least destructive to timber and bottomlands in a half dozen years.

Little more than 600 acres were burned over since the frost turned the leaves brown and dry last fall.
In a really bad year, as in the drought of 1952, it is not unusual for 400,000 acres to turn into brown and barren wasteland because of fire.

E. E. Nuuttila, the state forester at Springfield, reported that only eight fires were reported during March for all of Illinois, involving only a total of 147 acres. Six of them started when farmers burning brush or other debris were unable to control their fires. The remaining two were deliberately set, Nuuttila said.

March is normally an extremely hazardous month since the winds and extreme dryness of the woods and brushlands after the winter create conditions where fire can easily get out of control.

"We've been very lucky this year," Nuuttila said. "There was quite a bit of snow in the southern Illinois area where most fires occur during the winter and already we've had considerable rain down there to keep the bottomlands wet."

"It was getting pretty dry a couple of weeks ago in some of the forest fire areas and we were taking extra precautions," he said, but "it rained in time to prevent any serious fires from breaking out."

In addition to the help from the weather, Nuuttila is convinced that a continuing campaign to teach Illinois citizens to be careful about fire is beginning to show results.

"We've been doing a lot of talking about fire control," he said, "particularly in southern Illinois on radio stations and before school and civic groups, scout troops and other groups."

"All that has helped some, I think," he said, "and the rural fire departments throughout southern Illinois all have been co-operating with the program."

Even though the fire "season is considered generally to be the fall and winter months, there are serious fires during the summer, too.
"We don't have much trouble with fires set by hunters in the summer, but then there are the picnickers and campers," Nuuttila said.

James McCormack, pastor of St. Bruno's church, Pinckneyville, made the principal address at 2 p. m. on "Rural Youth—for God, Home and Country." This part of the meeting was held in the Orpheum theatre to accommodate the large attendance. A film, "Padre Pro," was also shown.

Mrs. J. Klein, president of the council, called the meeting to order at 10:30 a. m. and the Rev. J. R. Arnold, Deane moderator, Lawrenceville, led the opening prayer. The pledge of allegiance to the flag was followed by greetings from Father Bruns and the business of the meeting followed. Roll call of parishes revealed a good representation.

Mrs. Arthur Coles, chairman, spoke on "It's Round-up Time, in Organization and Development." Committee chairmen were then introduced.

Luncheon was served at the church and the meeting reconvened in the theatre for the picture and the address of Father McCormack. He spoke of the confusion of the youth of our country because of lack of leadership by the adults who are supposed to be their leaders. He stated that youth wants to know

Benton Man Voted to UMW Board Dist. 7

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. — Dave Williams, Benton, today was named the apparent winner of a four-county United Mine Workers of America election to select a board member for District 7 of Illinois District 12.

Unofficial results from 27 of 34 UMW locals in Franklin, Williamson, Jefferson and Saline counties showed Williams with 11,936 votes to 1,661 for Sherman Whitlow, also of Benton.

Eddie Franko, West Frankfort, had 514 votes in the unofficial tabulation announced at District 7 headquarters here.

Williams is president of Orient Mine No. 3 located at Waltonville. Whitlow is president of Orient No. 2 local at West Frankfort.

Williams will serve out an unexpired term ending April 1, 1961, created by the death of Ted Mitchell, West Frankfort, who died in February.

An official canvass will be conducted at District 12 headquarters in Springfield and the winner will take office May 1.

Several Innovations Will Mark Southern Illinois Music Festival

CARBONDALE, Ill.—Several innovations will mark the annual "Music Under the Stars" festival at Southern Illinois University the night of May 10, but the performing cast will be the same—hundreds of young musicians from all over the region.

The traditional outdoor festival in SIU's McAndrew Stadium will be performed as a memorial to the late Floyd Wakeland, former SIU choral director who organized the event nine years ago. The guest soloist will be Thomas L. Thomas, popularly known as "America's favorite baritone" thru his frequent radio and television appearances.

Dr. Robert Hines, Wakeland's successor as chairman of the Festival, has announced a roster of SIU conductors instead of the usual guest directors from downstate high schools. "In keeping with the memorial intent of the Festival and in order to emphasize the "educational" aspects of the event, we've decided to utilize the unusual talent represented by the University's present music staff," Hines explained.

In place of the massed high school bands of the past, SIU director of bands Philip Olsson will lead a group of some 200 musicians selected from the area's high school bands. There will be no elementary band on the program.

Another new feature will be a large symphony orchestra composed of the Southern Illinois Symphony, the newly organized Southern Illinois Youth Symphony and other talented teenage and adult musicians from the area. The group will be directed by Dr. Carmine Ficocelli, Southern Illinois Symphony conductor.

Dr. Charles Taylor and Dr. Robert Thomas, heads of the music programs at SIU's University School, will direct the massed high school and elementary choruses as well as handpicked groups of high school madrigal singers who will entertain the audience in the stands before the 7:30 p. m. flag-raising ceremony opening the festival.

Top vocal and piano solo winners from the Chicagoland Music Festival preliminary contests to be held here May 3 will both appear on the festival program. In the past only one contestant from each division performed in alternate years.

An attempt to "bring the music close to the audience" will feature two platform stages on the McAndrew Stadium turf one each for the band and orchestra, with the massed high school chorus situated between them. Elementary chorists will be seated across the field in the bleachers but will move onto the field for their performance.

Indict Two in Gallatin for Assault to Kill

A Gallatin County grand jury, in session last week, indicted two for assault with intent to murder, three others for burglary and larceny, one for rape, one for perjury and one for assault to rape.

Edward Allen Leonberger was indicted for assault with intent to murder. He allegedly, on February 23, with force of arms, in and upon his wife, Linda Lou Leonberger, feloniously, wilfully and of his malice aforethought did make an assault and did discharge and shoot off to, toward, against and upon her a certain deadly weapon, to wit: a pistol, with intent to kill and murder the said Linda Lou Leonberger, inflicting a bullet wound on the back of her head. Circuit Judge Roy O. Gulley set bond at $2,500.

Willard Parkinson was indicted for assault with intent to murder. He is charged with using force of arms upon George Thompson on November 14, 1957, with a dangerous weapon, an iron bar, to make assault upon his back, sides and hips and allegedly beat, bruised and wounded the said George Thompson with intent to kill. Bond was fixed at $2,500.

Thomas Gerald Thornton was indicted for burglary and larceny. He allegedly on March 18, 1957, broke into the Scherrer Equipment Co. building at Ridgway and carried away equipment to the value of $391.90 including an electric adding machine, cutting torch outfit, two electric drills and 100 spark plugs. Bond was set at $1,000.

A true bill was found against James Raphael Branum on a charge of burglary and larceny. He allegedly on January 29, 1958, broke into the Shawnee DX Service and took $80 in money, a pickup truck owned by Downen Bros. valued at $1,000, and a Jenny Hypresure steam cleaner owned by Lawrence Rich and valued at $300. His bond was fixed at $500.

Paul H. Atkinson was also indicted for burglary and larceny. He is charged with taking from John W. Richardson on December 27, 1957, or receiving and feloniously concealing when knowing they had been stolen, items of coal mining equipment and repairs valued at $89. Bond was fixed at $1,500.

Val Gene Lukancic was indicted for rape resulting from an incident that occurred with a girl under 16 on December 1, 1955. Bond was fixed at $2,000.

Clifton Durham was indicted for perjury. According to the charge he did on February 18, 1958, under oath appear as a witness in the investigation of a fire that destroyed the dwelling house occupied by he and his family on February 17, state to the Department of Public Safety investigator that he was sleeping in the house, awoke and jumped through a window, whereas in truth he was forcibly removed from the burning building by three men. Bail was fixed at $1,000.

Robert Barbre was indicted for assault to rape in connection with an incident that occurred on February 23, 1958, with a girl under 16. His bond was set at $1,000.

All eight defendants have filled their respective bonds.

SIU, will welcome the estimated audience of 5,000, while Dr. Henry Bruinsma, chairman of the SIU music department will serve as Master of Ceremonies.

Thomas, a distinguished recitalist and guest artist with such major orchestras as the New York Philharmonic and NBC, Detroit and Indianapolis Symphonies, is most widely familiar as a regular performer on "The Voice of Firestone" and other radio and TV programs. The Welsh-born artist will be the first guest star in the Festival's history who was not a Southern Illinois native.

Atlantic Pact Nations Pledge Nuclear Weapons for Allied Forces

PARIS (AP) — The defense ministers of the United States and 13 other Atlantic pact nations pledged today they would strengthen Allied "shield" forces in Western European with nuclear weapons.

They made this pledge at the close of a three-day conference which ended here this afternoon.

The nuclear weapons are expected to be both tactical—like the Matador guided missile which West Germany is soon to get—and strategic—like the intermediate range ballistic missiles to be delivered to Britain this year and to continental Allies at the start of 1959.

A communique issued at the end of the conference said the ministers heard reports from NATO military experts "on the progressive introduction of the most modern weapons and equipment and on the force needed for NATO defense in the years ahead."

The communique said the 14 defense ministers (Iceland, with no military forces, was not represented) discussed ways to build up NATO military strength to meet the Russian threat.

It said Soviet leaders are continuing to equip their large forces with the most modern weapons.

The ministers agreed Wednesday that NATO forces in Central Europe should be built up to 30 divisions from the present 16.

These divisions, which include American, British, German and French troops, are to be equipped later with tactical atomic firepower.

The ministers discussed, but made no attempt to decide, where IRBM bases would be established.

Joe Hafford Dies at Eldorado

Joe Hafford, 66, 922 Madison street, Eldorado, died at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Ferrell hospital. He is survived by his wife, Louisa, and his son, Melvin Hafford, Milwaukee, Wis. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday in the Eldorado Church of God with the Rev. Earl Vaughn officiating. Burial will be in the Dodd cemetery. The body is in the care of the Rodgers funeral home of Eldorado and will lie in state at the family home.

Boyd Langford Rites Held Today

The funeral of Boyd Langford, 62, veteran of World War I who died in the Veterans hospital at Marion Tuesday, was held at 2 p. m. today in the Dorrisville Baptist church, where he was a member. The Rev. William Fuson officiated and burial was in the Lindale Memorial Gardens.

The Harrisburg funeral home was in charge of the arrangements and the body remained at the funeral home until time for the funeral.

Fined

Charlie Feazel of Harrisburg today pleaded guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident and was fined $200 and costs by Justice of the Peace O. L. Woods.

Feazel was arrested by city police after Betty Dilbeck reported to police that a car driven by Feazel had struck her auto on North Main street and kept going.

President Opens Fight For Reorganization

cally, in answer to critics of his plan, that "There will be: —No single chief of state; —No Prussian staff; —No czar; —No 40-billion-dollar blank check; —No swallowing up of the traditional services; —No undermining of the constitutional powers of the Congress."

Would End Bickering

The President spoke out in the face of a stinging assault against his plan by Rep. Carl Vinson (D-Ga.), chairman of the House Armed Services Committee.

If Congress adopts his plan, the President said:

"There will be a stop to unworthy and sometimes costly bickering."

"There will be clear-cut civilian responsibility, unified strategic planning and direction, and complete unified combat command."

"There will be a stop to inefficiencies, and needless duplications encouraged by present law."

"In this way, he said, 'we will meet our dual needs—safety and solvency.'"

"We shall have maximum strength, with minimum cost, in our national defense."

Meanwhile, the House Armed Services Committee agreed unanimously to start public hearings Tuesday on the reorganization bill.

Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy, cutting short a Paris trip which originally was slated to last until April 28, will appear as the first witness.

The bill, sent to Congress Wednesday, had been slated for consideration behind closed doors by a subcommittee under rules adopted last January. The full 37-man committee changed the rules today, took over the bill and called for open hearings.

Mother of Three Children Gives Birth to Quadruplets

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Three girls and a boy born to the wife of a Piedmont plastic surgeon were "doing well" today at Merritt hospital.

The babies, born Wednesday to Mrs. Dorothy Hoskins, 38, were placed in incubators.

The first baby, a girl, weighed 3 pounds 14 ounces; the second, a girl, weighed 5 pounds 9 ounces; the boy weighed 4 pounds 11 ounces; and the third girl, 4 pounds 6 1/2 ounces.

Mrs. Hoskins is the wife of Dr. H. Dean Hoskins. They already have three daughters. Mrs. Hoskins knew in advance that she was to be the mother of quadruplets, but she did not expect them for another month.

Sen. W. K. Scott Of N. Carolina Dies Suddenly

BURLINGTON, N. C. (AP) — Rough-hewn Sen. W. Kerr Scott, whose campaign to get North Carolina farmers out of the mud made him the state's most powerful political figure, died suddenly Wednesday of complications from a heart attack.

The "squire of Haw River," who would have celebrated his 62nd birthday today, died at 4:55 p. m. in Alamance General Hospital about 15 miles from his rural birthplace at Haw River.

Scott, who had a recent medical history of hypertension but no previous heart trouble, was hospitalized April 9 with a coronary thrombosis. He had been making "satisfactory progress" toward recovery when death came.

An autopsy performed Wednesday night showed that death was caused by a sudden rupture of the damaged part of the heart. Doctors described it as an "unpredictable complication" which occurs in a limited number of heart cases.

"Death was instantaneous and without pain," the report said.

Scott's successor will be named by Democratic Gov. Luther H. Hodges, the man most frequently mentioned as a possible opponent for Scott in 1960. Hodges is expected to act quickly to fill the vacancy which leaves the Democrats with only a one-vote margin, 48-47, in the Senate.

The governor's appointee will serve only until Jan. 1. The remainder of Scott's term, which expires Jan. 1, 1961, will be filled at the November general election.

Philippines President Gives Approval for U. S. Missile Bases

MANILA (AP) — President Carlos P. Garcia today gave his approval for the establishment of U. S. nuclear missile bases in the Philippines.

In an exclusive interview with the United Press he said the Philippines were ready and willing to face the wrath of the Communists if such bases were set up.

"If missiles are needed for the defense of this area, I think some agreement can be worked out," Garcia said.

Long Island is a 120-mile-long spit of land in the Atlantic, dumped there ages ago by glaciers.

There Banks recorded four numbers, two ballads, a rock-and-roll number and a novelty song.

It is reported the recording people were greatly impressed.

The recording was played for a group of students at Vanderbilt University and Banks was compared to Eddie Arnold, Pat Boone and Elvis Presley, I am told.

I heard the recording at Galatia Tuesday and don't know just who he reminded me of and I surely am not a music critic. But I know when I like a singer—and I definitely liked Banks' recordings. It was enjoyable listening.

He was backed up by the Anita Kerr singers and Millie, famous for her backing work in Ferlin Huskey's hit song "Gone." Instrumental background music was supplied by Chet Atkins, according to Bozeman.

Banks is a typical small-town boy. I knew him in high school where he was friendly, but not aggressive. He played football, basketball and was a member of Coach Al Adams' track team.

Jack Large, Galatia high school principal, was a member of the Eldorado high school faculty at that time and referred to him Tuesday as a "quiet, unassuming boy... a pleasure to have in class."

Raymond Gardner, Saline county superintendent of schools, was Banks' high school basketball coach. Gardner said Wednesday morning "Banks had lots of athletic ability, but was too quiet to ever reach the peak of his potential. I remember him well and always liked him, but never knew he could carry a note as he never sang around the dressing rooms."

Banks graduated from the Eldorado Township high school with the class of 1954. He is the son of Mrs. Sarah Banks and the late Olan Banks. His mother and two younger sisters, Patricia and Sharon, live at 725 Madison street, Eldorado.

Banks and Bozeman will leave Monday for Hollywood. Bozeman knows Randy Wood of Paramount pictures and they hope Mr. Wood will give them the push that will carry Richard to the top.

Hollywood is sometimes called the "city of heartbreaks" where more fail than succeed.

But Banks and Bozeman feel confident that Richard will become one of America's singing stars.

They have the very best wishes of all their friends.

Mrs. Ernest Gray, 71, Dies at Carrier Mills

Mrs. Lola Gray, 71, died at her home on East Furlong street, Carrier Mills, at 6:10 p. m. Wednesday. She was the wife of Ernest Gray and the sister of Mrs. Mary Roberson, Mounds City, who survives. She was born in Hickman, Ky.

The body will lie in state at the Thornton funeral home in Carrier Mills until 10 a. m. Saturday when it will be taken to the Galilee Baptist church to lie in state for one hour before the funeral at 11 a. m. The casket will be closed at the beginning of the funeral and will not be reopened. Burial will be in the Lake View cemetery.

U. S. Highway Bill To Permit State to Complete Program

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—President Eisenhower's signature on the interstate highway bill will permit Illinois to complete its 260-million dollar road program this year, Gov. Stratton's office said Wednesday night.

The federal government will contribute 195-million dollars toward the state highway program.

Stratton's office said that if the President had not signed the bill, Illinois eventually would have received 195-million dollars in federal funds, but not soon enough to complete the full road program this year.

Seek $37,000 Damages as Result Of Auto Collision

A total of $37,000 damages today was sought from Joseph Hopson as a result of an auto collision on Route 13 between Harrisburg and Equality at 8:45 p. m. Sept. 7, 1957.

Plaintiffs are Henry Lafayette Jr. and Dorothy Lafayette, passengers of the car which figured in the collision with the Hopson machine.

The complaint, filed in circuit court by Atty. Jack C. Morris, asks $25,000 for injuries to Dorothy Lafayette, $10,000 for injuries to Mr. Lafayette and $2,000 for auto damage. The complaint says the Lafayette car was demolished.

Girl Fears Father's Wrath More Than Jail

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A judge's 17-year-old secretary says she prefers time behind bars to her father's punishment.

Mrs. Leona Hall Pettigrew, charged with being among a group of teen-agers who stole a car, voluntarily returned to jail Wednesday although her bond was provided by her employer, City Judge Ray Grimaldi.

"Rather than to go home and face punishment from my father," she said, "I'll go to jail."

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service) Overenthusiasm is somewhat of a disease in some folk. They befacet of living or a new fad. They forget the first enthusiasm, and give all their attention to the fresh will o' the wisp.

Somehow these people never have an anchor to which they can fasten their souls. They constantly keep chasing rainbows although they know that there will never be a pot of gold at the end of the prismatic arch.

Some find a momentary thrill in turning toward the Divine. They become enthusiastic yet quickly turn away from God for lesser interests. They do not anchor their lives to the rock of love.

Those who find great peace with God will not allow their soul-satisfied enthusiasm to shift to other interests.

Waste
For decades in the 19th century, gasoline, or "stove naphtha," was a waste product in the refining of kerosene, and was simply poured into creeks, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

LEAD WITH YOUR LEFT

by ED LACY

XXII
I DIALED Mary's office. Soon as Mary got on the phone she asked, "Where have you been all afternoon? I've called the house at least half a dozen times."

"It's my day off so what diff does it make to you if I'm checking, sleeping, taking in a movie, or watching pugs in a gym?" I asked.

"It would be just too bad if you spent a few minutes of the afternoon seeing Uncle Frank. I suppose you were too busy for that."

"I'll see him tomorrow." "No more stalling. I'm glad you called, Dave. I have to type up the minutes of a big sales conference. I won't be home till nine."

"I'll manage. Mean you get stuck on your job, too?" "Indeed I do," Mary said in an oversweet voice. "But I get time and a half for it and $2 for supper money."

She hung up and I counted my change. All the fares and phoning left me with 70 cents. I could go up to the station and maybe borrow a buck, along with a lot of ribbing.

I walked six blocks to the crosstown bus and rode over to the Bronx, then up Third Ave. and walked to the Owens house. A tall young woman wearing corny black and gold treader pants that proved she had thin legs, and an interesting suede beach jacket, opened the door.

I followed her into the living room and those long legs sure took big steps. There was a pigskin overhanger covered with plane stickers against one wall. Mrs. Owens came in from the kitchen, drying her hands on her apron. "Mr. Wintino, I hope we didn't put you to no trouble by . . . What happened to your face?"

"Bruised it horsing around."

"Put a hot piece of raw potato on it soon as you get home. This is my daughter Susan. Came in from South America by plane this morning."

"I recognized her from the picture on the piano," I said politely.

"I hope not," Susan said. "I looked like a freshly stuffed yoke! when that thing was taken."

MRS. OWENS rubbed her hands on her apron again. "I thought . . . you see, Mr. Wintino—"

"You look like a dancehall john to me, Wintino," Susan cut in her voice flat and hard, "but you're a detective and so was Pop. And Ma has confidence in you. There's something fishy about a pinch-penny like Al Wales having a bankroll on him . . . and then what we found today. I'm going to be frank with you, because Ma thinks you'll understand."

"What do you want me to understand?"

"It's like this, we don't want to do anything shady, or that might hinder you in finding the killers. At the same time four grand isn't anything to toss away and if it turns out we can keep the dough, I don't want it tied up as evidence for the next hundred years."

"What four—" I began. "Hold still for a hot second," Susan told me, darting out of the room.

Mrs. Owens gave me a sickly smile. "We want to do the right thing, what poor Ed would have wanted us to do. I wanted to take it to the local station house at once, but Susan thought it would be just as well to ask your advice."

"You found four thousand bucks?" I asked as Susan came bounding into the room carrying a large dresser drawer. It was an old plain one, cracked in several places. She placed it upside-down on the living room table as Mrs. Owens reached over to yank a lace covering out of the way. Susan put a small pile of $50 bills on the drawer and a savings bankbook with the word "canceled" cut across it. Hunks of dirty white tape were clinging to the bottom of the drawer.

"I was going through Pop's things, you know, getting them ready to throw out or sell. I had this drawer out too far and it nearly fell. When I grabbed it, I felt the money and bankbook taped to the bottom. I didn't know it was money—it was in a plain white envelope—till I tore the envelope open and saw the green. This is what we want to see you about—four grand and this bankbook. It's a Brooklyn savings bank and in the name of

Miners' Exams Here May 15; Will Be Held At Eldorado May 14

Exams for miners' certificates will be held in Eldorado May 14, 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. at the mine rescue station, and in Harrisburg May 15, 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. at the Labor temple. These will be part of a series of 12 exams scheduled during May, it was announced today by Director Ben H. Schull of the Illinois Department of Mines and Minerals.

Francis Parker. As you'll see, the account was opened this March with five bucks. A week later there was a deposit of $10. On April 1 there's a withdrawal of $4, and on April 5 a deposit of $4,000.75. The entire account was closed out on April 22, about two weeks ago. Take a look at the bankbook."

SHE handed me the book as she nervously lit a cigarette. I said, "You shouldn't have touched things. Where's the envelope?"

"I got so excited when I saw the money, I tore the envelope open. It was all in pieces, so I threw it away."

"Where did you throw it?"

"In the garbage can. What's so important about an old envelope? At first I thought it was a letter, but when I saw the bills, well, naturally I ripped it open. Told you the envelope tore."

"I was thinking of prints," I said, opening the book. There was a "ck" next to the $4,000.75 deposit, meaning it had been made by check. It was a downtown Brooklyn bank. "Ever hear of Francis Parker before?"

"Never. Neither has Ma." (To Be Continued)

Announce Plans For Foundry to Locate at Fairfield

FAIRFIELD, Ill. — Plans for an iron foundry that will employ up to 50 persons with an annual payroll of from $50,000 to $100,000 were announced at a meeting of the Fairfield City Council Tuesday night.

The company will be known as the Fairfield Foundry Inc. John Robison, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said the foundry would move here from August.

Officials said a potential customer for the new plant is Airtex Products Inc., which makes auto replacement parts. It employs 600-700 persons.

The city will build the new building from sales tax funds which are earmarked for industrial purposes. The city recently imposed a 1/2-cent sales tax which is expected to net some $50,000 a year.

The foundry company will buy the site and building from the city under a lease-purchase agreement calling for payments of $150 per month plus interest.

Too Busy to Eat More

MT. VERNON, Ind. — The owners of a local restaurant were astonished at the size of a breakfast served a visitor here Tuesday morning.

The man, Noble Moye of Ridgeway, Ill., consumed 12 eggs, 3 pieces of toast, a piece of cherry pie and 2 cups of coffee. He then informed the staff that he could have eaten six more eggs if he had had the time.

Select Southern Illinois Sites to Visit in New Type Recreation Plan

A new type of recreation, open to the public without charge, will begin in southern Illinois this summer. Five of the most interesting spots in the area have been selected and each will receive a leisurely week-end visit to explore and enjoy its attractions. Little or no driving will be required once the location is reached.

A wide variety of accommodations will be available near each camp. Visitors may bring and prepare their own food or eat in cafes a few minutes away. They may bring sleeping bags, blankets and straw or drive to motels. Guide service and shelter will be provided. Other than that everyone will be on his own. Worship service each Sunday.

These trips are being arranged by the Upper Forty Explorer's Club with headquarters in Du Quoin, and will replace the Sunday auto tours conducted the past four years. The club feels that these inexpensive, restful week-ends will provide much fun and relaxation.

Five such get-togethers are planned. One for the first Saturday in each month beginning May 3. On this date the gathering place will be in the set of vacant farm buildings on the Effie Ragan farm east of Eddyville, on beautiful Lusk Creek. It will feature birds, wildflowers, "Rock Candy Mountain," Rock House, Indian Kitchen and fishing. Few places in the world see such a variety of birds and wildflowers as southern Illinois. Mary Farley of Harrisburg will lead the bird walk at dawn.

Sunday morning Addison Hape-man of Woodlawn and Mrs. William Crawford, Benton, wildflowers. Atorney and Mrs. William C. Stevens of Centralia and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Soldner of Marion will look after camp arrangements. Bill Farley with his fox horn will be trail leader.

Eddyville is located 15 miles south of Harrisburg on Route 145. The all-weather road will be marked from the village. The public is cordially invited. Bring children and musical instruments for campfire singing.

The second such gathering will be in the historic and picturesque village of Grand Tower, on the Mississippi River June 7-8. This friendly little town is opening its doors and arms to the public that week-end and dozens of low-rate sleeping rooms will be available in homes and the famous village hotel. Nearby attractions include the world's largest overhead pipeline Tower Rock, Indian writings and camp sites, Fountain Bluff and the Hills. Outdoor stoves and tables in the park on the river can accommodate hundreds of people. Good cafes handy if preferred.

Three more such gatherings will be announced later, one for the first Saturday in each month. For further information and for reservations for sleeping rooms in Grand Tower at $1.25 per person, write Wayman Presley at Mahanda, Illinois, president and founder of the club.

First Home Run

Babe Ruth hit his first home run in professional baseball during a game at Fayetteville, N. C., in March of 1914. An official marker commemorates the event there.

Downstate Fisherman's Guide

Topnotch Bass and Crappie Catches Reported at Crab Orchard Lake

(From reports by the Southern Illinois University Cooperative Fisheries Research Laboratory and the Illinois Department of Conservation.)

Warming up at a rate nearly 10 degrees ahead of most other area lakes, Crab Orchard has been "busting out all over" with some topnotch bass and crappie catches. One of the most heartening bass parleys of the past two years was scored in the Cambria neck shallows by Bob Mason, a Royalton fisherman, who strung up seven nice ones in two furious hours of casting.

Mason's haul included one seven and one-half pounder and five averaging over five pounds, and news of the event prompted a lively run on the lake.

Al Peithman, working the shallows with a Heddon Sonic, produced a six and a five pounder as well as several two and three pound bass. Peithman has been fishing late in the day towards dusk. Charles Baggett of Carbondale also landed one at five pounds.

Crab Orchard crappie are moving in to spawn and widespread fishing over the April 11-12 week-end accounted for many excellent catches. Jack Simon of Carbondale connected for a basket full of good-sized ones.

Little Grassie made the news with two whopping catches only ounces short of the all-time record. John Byrd of East St. Louis landed a nine pound, six ounce largemouth on his first trip of the year. He was fishing deep with a black Bomber.

Fishing a Divebomber a few days later, Carbondale's Paul Ellis tied into a nine-pounder and successfully wrestled it to gaff.

Other leaders were Earl Ferguson of Benton, up and at 'em for the first time this year following an illness, a six and one-half pounder (Helldiver); Clarence Dawson, Florissant, Mo., five pounds, 14 ounces (Helldiver), and George Rose, Benton six and three-quarter pounds (Helldiver).

If the names sound familiar—they are. Grassy's top catches have been made by "spot" fishermen long familiar with the lake, and every one of their lucky prizes represents hours of hard fishing.

Crappie and channel cat fishing at Lake Murphysboro has been quite productive for a week, but here the crappie are being taken from deep holes out in the middle. A fair share of the crappie are ranging between eight ounces and a pound; channel cat between three-quarters and three pounds.

Lake Murphysboro's prize bass catch of the week, a five pounder, went to an unnamed Anna angler. Bass activity has tailed off slightly from a good early run, but it's still considerably heavier than normal. The lake is at spillway level and has rarely looked better.

Reds Ask Replay Of Opening Game

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Cincinnati Redlegs General Manager Gabe Paul Wednesday asked that the National League season opener here which the Reds lost 5-4 to Philadelphia Tuesday, be ordered replayed.

In a formal protest of an umpire's ruling, Paul stood behind manager George "Birdie" Tebbetts' charge that a fan touched the ball hit by Granny Hamner in the seventh. It was the ball on which a runner hit the tying run before the Phils went on to win the game.

Johnny Podres Fans 11 as Dodgers Bury San Francisco Giants, 13-1

Kansas City A's Win Second Straight From Cleveland

By United Press
Johnny Podres, who pitched the Dodgers to their first world championship, also pitched them to their first victory in California with a masterful performance of 11 strikeouts that gave San Francisco fans an inkling as to why the Giants had become the despair of New York.

Everything went right for the Dodgers Wednesday night as they slammed out 15 hits, including homers by rookie Dick Gray and Duke Snider, in burying the Giants, 13-1, on Podres' fifty-five-hit pitching.

The Dodgers routed starter Ramon Monzon in the third inning after Snider hit his 452-foot screamer over the right field wall with one on to put them ahead.

Mt. Vernon, Ind.;
Third Straight

After three baseball games, the Harrisburg Bull Dogs are yet to be scored upon.

Yesterday Coach John Dotson took his crew to Mt. Vernon, Ind., and came home with a 3-0 victory.

In the first game of the year Ira Logan went to the mound and blanked Ridgway. Tuesday afternoon Dale Roberson whitewashed Eldorado. Then yesterday curvball ace Zan Hefner pitched for the locals against the Indiana boys for the third shutout in as many games.

Dotson said a large crowd was on hand to see yesterday's game, and that he was proud of the way his boys played against Mt. Vernon, a good team. The Indiana hurler, Brauser, was a big, strong boy, he stated.

Hefner, who allowed three singles, walked four and struck out six, had a no-hit game going into the final frame and although he was in trouble then, came out unharmed. First two men up singled, and after a strikeout another single loaded the bases. The next batter fanned and the final out was made when a player grounded to Ron Maynard, third baseman, who stepped on the bag for a force-out.

Brauser allowed Harrisburg five hits and three walks and struck out seven. Tom Syers got two hits and Mickey Stone, Bob Pavelonis and Ray Hassett one each. Harrisburg played errorless ball, Mt. Vernon made two miscues.

Harrisburg players were Syers rf, Gary Aldridge rf, Stone 2b, Pavelonis ss, Maynard 3b, Charles Yarber cf, Hassett c, Don Pickford 1b, Joe Wathen lf and Hefner p.

4-0. Giant manager Bill Rigney called on Paul Giel, Jim Constable, Ray Crone and Stu Miller from his bullpen during the course of the game but none of them was able to halt the Los Angeles onslaught.

Like most Giant-Dodger games, this one stretched three hours and three minutes. The final out was registered at 2:18 a. m. e. s. t., long after most New York baseball fans were sound asleep.

A crowd of 22,735 fans at Seals Stadium saw the game in chilly 55-degree temperature and although there was a bit of grumbling about the Giants' pitching, there were no noticeable complaints about the fog from San Francisco Bay.

Podres' 11 strikeouts was his one-game high for the majors. He fanned nine during the first five innings and retired the side on strikes in the third. The Giants scored their only run off him in the sixth on rookie Jim Davenport's single, a walk and a single by Willie Mays.

Cimoli to Play Today
Dodger outfielder Gino Cimoli was struck above the left ear by a pitch from Giel in the seventh inning but the club physician, Dr. Harold Wendler, said the injury wasn't serious and that Cimoli would be able to play when the two teams meet again today.

It was the only National League game scheduled.

Maybe it's only temporary, but you can't blame the Kansas City Athletics for being a bit excited about sharing the American League lead. They made it two in a row by beating the Cleveland Indians for the second straight day, 9-4.

All the experts said the A's sacrificed too much power in deals during the winter, but there was no evidence of it as outfielder Bob Cerv drove in five runs with a homer and a pair of doubles. Kansas City knocked out Ray Narleski in the first inning and Ralph Terry went on to register the victory although Tom Gorman had to rescue him in the eighth.

Sobbing note: The Athletics also won their first two games last season.

Detroit, which got off to a wretched start last April, scored its second straight victory over the White Sox, 5-4, on Frank Bolling's three-run homer with two out in the ninth inning.

Three Unearned Runs
Bolling blasted his game-winning off Dick Donovan, who had been rapped for three singles by him earlier in the contest. All three of the runs were unearned since Charlie Maxwell reached first on Luis Aparicio's error and advanced to third on Tim Thompson's single. Donovan retired the next two batters, then worked the count to 3-and-2 on Bolling before the Tiger second baseman batted his 352-foot wallop.

Bubba Phillips and Sherm Lollar each homered for the White Sox while Maxwell connected for the Tigers. George Spencer, fifth of six Detroit pitchers, was the winner.

Dave Sisler's seven-hit pitching and Jackie Jensen's two-run homer carried the Boston Red Sox to a 3-1 triumph over the New York Yankees.

Sisler struck out eight, including Mickey Mantle twice, in posting his sixth victory over the Yankees in eight life-time decisions against them. He also singled home Boston's third run in the fourth inning after Jim Pier-sall doubled.

Jensen socked his second homer of the season with Gene Stephens on base in the first inning. The blow, off loser Tom Sturdivant, proved to be all the Red Sox needed for their first victory of the campaign following two straight losses.

Ted Williams remained out of uniform but was reported recovering from a bout with ptomaine poison.

Baltimore and Washington were idle.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State.

Many collisions occur because a motorist has become so familiar with a specific route which he constantly travels that he lets down his guard when driving that particular route. He is not fully alert behind the steering wheel.

Take for instance, the driver who for years has driven to and from work along the same route. He knows the way like he knows the back of his hand. And when a traffic signal suddenly is erected at a new location on the old route, he's apt to be floating through it, never even noticing that the signal is there. He just wasn't expecting it at that point.

In the neighborhood, too, familiarity results in many a collision and death. The motorist feels he can drive through the neighborhood streets with his eyes closed he is so well acquainted with them.

Not only is the driver who is not alert behind the wheel responsible for a number of collisions and deaths in the neighborhood, but so, too, is the pedestrian who is not alert. Walking to and from work or the stores, especially at dawn and dusk, many a pedestrian confidently walks along a route he has known for years. He casually crosses intersections before looking both ways to make sure the coast is clear.
